

DRESS TO IMPRESS

Look your best & get the job!

For more tips on how to land the interview, visit:
www.clearmotivationsnpo.org/employment-prep

THE INTERVIEW DRESS CODE

Interviewers form an impression in 1/10 of a second.

55% of a person's opinion is determined by physical appearance.

Clean shaven or closely trimmed beard.

White or light colored shirt.

Non-distracting tie.

Tailored suit.

Belt.

Dark plain socks.

Black leather shoes.

Soft and subtle makeup.

Neat and tidy hairstyle.

High-neck shirt or blouse.

Mid-length skirt/dress or trousers.

Dark, low-heeled shoes.

EARN EXTRA POINTS FOR

Showing up groomed and smelling nice!

Wearing your glasses.
(if you have any)

Wearing corporate colors.

Having fresh breath.
(remember to spit out your gum BEFORE the interview)

Showing up with polished shoes.

LOSE POINTS FOR

Having bad hygiene and smelling bad.

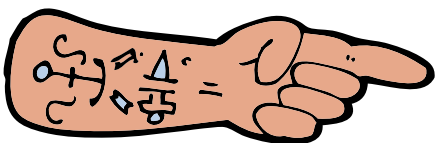

Wearing sports shoes.

Having stains on your shirt.

Having visible body piercings.

Displaying tattoos on your body.